About Us

Mission

The mission of ACM-W is to engage women in activities and projects that aim to improve the working and learning environments for women in computing by mentoring and role modeling, volunteering and teaching others, encouraging other women to get involved in CS, and providing historical information about women and their roles and contributions within the field of computer science.

The Ohio State Chapter of the ACM-W was chartered on May 13, 2003. Our membership is open to all students interested in furthering the mission of the ACM-W, male or female, undergrad or grad, etc.

GirlsWhoCode

Fall 2015, Mondays @ Dominion Middle School

ACM-W sent 2-3 volunteers every week to Dominion Middle School, where ACM-W has founded a Girls Who Code chapter, to lead sessions on CS to a class of about 10 girls from 6-8th grade.

CoolTechGirls Workshop

October 24, 2015 @ Baker Systems Engineering

ACM-W partnered with the non-profit CoolTechGirls and Cardinal Health to host a fun workshop for 30 girls ages 10-15. With the help of the Information Systems Association, ACM-W had 10 volunteers to help mentor the girls in various activities with Code.org, Scratch, and Made with Code.

Buck-i-Code

March 26th, 2016 @ Dreese Labs

ACM-W hosted a free one day computer-science workshop for girls ages 10-15. The workshop aimed to enable girls to see the power and fun of programming. Activities included interactive programming with Scratch, real life applications of Computer Science, and basic programming of FinchBots.

Interest: 48 sign ups

Total Attendance: 33 girls

Volunteers: 10 total volunteers (6 non ACM-W members)

Recruiting Efforts

Events:
8/23  Fall Involvement Fair
8/27  WiE Fall Kickoff Event
9/18  College of Engineering Activities Fair
1/21  WiE Diversity Kickoff

In-class announcements were made in CSE courses throughout the year. ACM-W focused on recruiting first and second year students to develop a long lasting supportive community and provide mentorship to younger students throughout their college experience.

Arch-E Week

April 8, 2016 @ Dreese Labs Lobby

ACM-W hosted the annual Spring Picnic as part of the College of Engineering’s Architecture & Engineering Week, a week-long series of events, sponsored by Engineers’ Council and hosted by engineering organizations to celebrate all disciplines of engineering and architecture. The 2016 Spring Picnic had a record of 100+ students in attendance.

Collaboration with Student Organizations

Events:
8/27  Marathon Information Session (hosted with ISA)
9/29  Distinguished Speaker: Viral Kadakia (hosted with BDAA)
3/9   “How the Internet Works” Workshop (hosted with CWDG)

ACM-W expanded it’s reach and impact throughout campus by working with diverse student organizations both within the Department of Computer Science & Engineering and outside.

OHI/O 2015

Nov. 14th - 15th @ The Ohio Union | hack.osu.edu

ACM-W helped organize the OHI/O 2015 Hackathon, more than doubling the student attendance to 500+ participants, increasing industry partner count from 10 to 23 and co-hosting two pre-hype events.

Pre-Hype Events

10/2  Fall Picnic & OHI/O Team Formation Social with Brooksource (OHI/O Sponsor)
10/20 Apple Presents Demo of ResearchKit

The annual ACM-W fall picnic, sponsored by Brooksource, was held in partnership with OHI/O as a team formation event for the 2015 Hackathon. This was the largest event ACM-W held in Fall, with an attendance of 32 students.

ACM-W Winning Team “Joan-Cena”

ACM-W members won the TDA (Translational Data Analytics) challenge at the 2015 hackathon. The challenge was to develop algorithms that could analyze 91 student resumes and 262 job descriptions to identify and visualize the similarities and differences.

Grace Hopper Celebration Conference

October 14th - 16th @ George R. Brown Convention Center, Houston, TX

The Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing is the world’s largest conference for women in technology, bringing together 12,000 women, ranging from students, researchers, and industry professionals in the technology and software industry. Grace Hopper consisted of a three day long career fair, keynote speakers, seminars, workshops and plenty of networking and social activities. This year, ACM-W sent 12 girls to the conference with support from the CSE department and the STEM Gender Initiatives. The GHC conference provided members with the opportunity and confidence to succeed in the field – through finding career opportunities through career fair and networking sessions or personal and professional development through the workshops, speakers and seminars.

Lean-In Circles

Events:

9/10  Lean-In Discussion
10/29 Lean in Discussion Circle: Women, Work and the Will to Lead
1/20  Semester Kickoff
       Mentor/Mentee pairing

What would you do if you weren’t afraid?

- Sheryl Sandberg, Lean In: Women, Work and the Will to Lead

ACM-W started an Ohio State CSE Lean-In Chapter to focus on helping women in the major succeed and achieve their personal and professional goals. These “circles” provided women with the chance to connect with mentors/mentees, encourage each other and to build a supportive community network through sharing personal experiences.
